

Robin O'Connell

Phone Number Available Upon Request | robinococonnelltheatre@gmail.com | Denver, CO

Summary

Growing up in libraries, I have always had a fascination for the power of storytelling. I am a dramaturg, playwright and performer who has worked in a variety of educational and local theatres. My interests lie in the realm of theatrical research, history, folktales and fairy tales.

Education

Florida Gulf Coast University | Fort Myers, FL

English | 11/2025

Magna Cum Laude, 3.7 GPA, President's List (2023 -2025)

Bachelor of Arts in English, Minors in Theatre and Creative Writing

Skills

Research, Writing , Analysis, Attention to Detail

Experience

The Moot Point Project | Denver, CO

Dramaturg | 03/2026 - Present

- Designed and delivered presentation on the world of the play
- Wrote and edited program note
- Facilitated monthly play readings
- Wrote and edited promotional materials for social media
- Provided insight and expertise during rehearsals
- Prepared research and conversational topics for monthly play readings

Florida Gulf Coast University | Fort Myers, FL

Dramaturg | 08/2023 - 04/2026

She Kills Monsters - Fall 2025 to April 2026

Silent Sky - Fall 2023 to February 2024

- Authored informational documents, including thematic breakdowns and historical context, for the production team and cast to enhance understanding
- Developed and curated a glossary defining 65+ specialized terms and knowledge from the play
- Prepared visual research for the production team
- Designed and delivered an educational presentation on the play
- Facilitated post show discussion and answered patron questions
- Provided relevant additional readings to patrons